

NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR WOMEN, NEW DELHI

The National Commission for Women was established as statutory body in January 1992 under the National Commission for Women Act, 1990 of Government of India. The commission aims to review the Constitutional and Legal safeguards for women, recommend remedial legislative measures, facilitate redressal of grievances and advise the Government on all policy matters affecting women. Commission organizes workshops, consultations, constitutes expert committees on economic empowerment of women, conducts workshops/seminars for gender awareness and women empowerment.

WOMEN CELL OF CTUAP

CTUAP established Women Cell with the aim to empower girl students in all spheres of life enabling them to become agents of social and economic change and inculcating ethical values for the betterment of self, family and society.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

The Central Tribal University of Andhra Pradesh (CTUAP) is an esteemed central university established under the Central Universities (Amendment) Act, 2019 with an aim to develop a creative academic space to exchange the knowledge, innovative ideas where society and human being reflects inclusive and holistic development.

The teaching and learning practices of this university represent the indigenous knowledge, values and principles for the sustainable and inclusive development of the nation in general and in particular to Andhra Pradesh. Because, the state of Andhra Pradesh is one of the states representing larger number of scheduled tribes in the southern region of India. In addition, this university envisioned the harmonious growth of women folk community and ensures the ethics and values of equality, gender justice and liberty of girl students.

WELCOME TO

CAPACITY BUILDING & PERSONALITY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM (CB & PDP)

ON

26th APRIL 2023

Organized by
Central Tribal University of Andhra Pradesh in association with National Commission for Women, New Delhi

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

The education is a potential factor which supplements the process of women empowerment. The Central Tribal University of Andhra Pradesh prioritizes to orient and build the studentship with the qualities of independent, responsible, empowered citizens who are capable, suitable for the nation building.

The New Education Policy-2020 declares to strengthen the girl education and gender equality of girl students. The NEP-2020 highlights “decisive steps to ensure proper weightage and support in education to women”. Similarly, “employment support is a vital factor for girls” (NEP-2020 The Game Changer, by Prof.T.V.Kattimani).

Accordingly, the Women Cell of Central Tribal University of Andhra Pradesh organizes gender sensitivity programmes and skill enhancement for under graduate and post graduate (UG & PG) girl students, which is mandatory in New Education Policy-2020.
